

Etere will not participate in exhibitions for the next 12 Months

Due to the Covid-19 global pandemic, we are switching to a contactless business model. You can request for a live demo of our product anytime. Our business will continue to run but with minimised social contact.

(Etere a consistent system)

Dear customers, partners and friends,

In view of the unprecedented Covid-19 global pandemic, the Etere management team has put together an update regarding our participation in exhibitions. For the safety of our employees and to maintain a safe working environment for all, the Etere team will defer our participation in exhibitions for at least a year.

We remain committed to providing you with the service excellence and innovation that is synonymous with Etere solutions. Please be rest assured that business is running as usual at Etere and we are just a call or an email away when you need us.

During this time, Etere is closely monitoring industry developments around the world. Amidst this global pandemic, Etere is with you on this difficult journey. Digitalisation and innovation are a part of the brand's DNA. As part of our vision, Etere have developed digitisation strategies that gives you a head start to prepare for a better future. Do not let geographical boundaries limit your business continuity. Wherever you are in the world, we can setup a video conference to showcase our products and new features to your convenience. With the availability of remote training and installation, Etere is ready to elevate your business!

We are only an email away. Get in touch with the team.
